Maternal, Infant and Early Childhood Home Visiting (MIECHV)/Parents as Teachers (PAT)

is an evidence-based parenting program that improves the health and development of children. Program enrollment is open to infants between the ages of 0 to 12 months in Alachua and Marion counties, and 0 to 24 months in Bradford, Columbia, Hamilton and Putnam counties. MIECHV/PAT is free to families whose lives are impacted by these situations:

- Low-income
- Teen parent
- Low educational attainment
- Child abuse or neglect
- Substance abuse
- Tobacco use in the home
- Children with developmental delays, disabilities or chronic health issues
- Military family

REFER PARENTS to MIECHV/PAT so they may receive:

- Free parenting support
- Education about child development
- Developmental screenings
- Family self-sufficiency
- Resources to strengthen their families

REFER PARENTS to MIECHV/PAT and you will benefit:

- We help parents follow their provider's advice and meet appointments
- We connect families to resources that fit their needs

IT'S EASY! REFER PARENTS by:

- Completing the MIECHV referral form
